

Hillsong Worship - Transfiguration

```
only song my soul can find to Intro: Dm7 F C G
                                                                 sing
Verse 1:
                                                                  Is hallelu
From the cloud You
                                                                 jah, halle
                                                                 lujah,
speak
What was Hallelu
veiled now is jah my
                                                                 King
seen Verse 2
Dm7
Jesus the image
                                                                 Dm7
                                                                 Lead my longing
of heart to the
The invi
sible
                                                                 High ground to a
God
                                                                 clear view
Dm7
                                                                 Dm7
Divinity con
                                                                 And in awe I'll be firmed in the
                                                                 there
                                                                 Beholding
Transfigured
                                                                 You
Dm7
A kingdom once con
                                                                 Chorus: Instrumental:
cealed
                                                                  ( F G C )
On the Bridge:
earth now rev
                                                                 Now I
ealed
                                                                 know I have Holy is the Lord, revealed before
                                                                 seen Dm7
                                                                  Your
my eyes
And my
                                                                 glory that cannot be un
Am7
burning heart can
                                                                 seen
Scarcely take it
                                                                  I am
                                                                 Dm7
in
                                                                 changed and changing
As
                                                                 still
                                                                  As I look
I behold Your beauty with un worthy eyes
                                                                 upon Your Lord and be The
                                                                 live
```

Acordes

