She tears the hole of even wider
Its all the darkness up inside her
Holy old yeah
You´re mine
Your everything is mine

Without without a doubt
Hey, Where the fuck were you when my lights went out?...whoa
Yeah you don't want to look at it
No....whoa
Yeah you don't want to look at it wow
Without without a doubt
C'mon and let me out
Yeah where the fuck were you when my lights went out?...whoa
Yeah you don't want to look at it
No...whoa whoa
Yeah you don't want to look at me
C'mon let me out c'mon and let me out
Yeah tie a soul to you when your life goes down
Tire floods when your falling down
I spread my right all over this town
And everyone of you looks the same
And everyone of you feels the same
