I Think That I Might Die - Live Through This

Have fun with this. The song is four chords, I think..

Main Riff:

Bb B G

Pick it that way.. then strum the hell out of those chords for the chorus..

I have no idea what the "Rose wine, rose red" part is, since I can't really make out any guitar, but it sounded like a D power chord to me, with maybe a C power chord in there somewhere..

Lyrics:

You're stupid, I'm smarting
You're stupid, I'm smarting

I want my baby, where is the baby?
I want my baby, who took my baby?

Rose wine, rose red, rose up in my head
Rose wine, rose red, aahhhheeeaaooohh

Yeah yeah, I want some
Yeah yeah, there is none

I want my baby, where is the baby?
I want my baby, where is the baby?

There is no milk, there is no milk
There is no milk, there is no milk

Rose wine, rose red, rose up in my head
Rose wine, rose red, aahhhheeeaaahh

Oh! Ow! Ow!

She lost all her innocence
Gave it to an abscess
She lost all her innocence
She says I am not a feminist

It's.. not.. yours.. FUCK YOU!

There is no milk, there is no milk
There is no milk, there is no milk

This is the second song where milk is a predominant theme in the song, and like the third with a baby theme.. Francis Bean wouldn't have anything do with this would she? nahh.. :)

Courtney was on the net.. I hope she gets a laugh out of these.. ;)
