Lyrics:
Geeks do not have pedigrees
Or perfect punk-rock resumes
Or anorexic magazines
It smells like girl
It smells like girl

She walks over me
She walks over me

Hold you close like we both died
My ever present suicide
My stupid fuck, my blushing bride
Oh, tear my heart out, tear my heart out

She walks over me
She walks over me

I shut my mouth with you whore
I gotta use the rest of you whore
Yeah, I gotta shut my mouth with you whore
I gotta use the rest of you

Kitty, kitty
Please come here
Now don't you touch me, don't you dare
We look the same, we talk the same, we are the same, we are the same

She walks over me
She walks over me

I shut my mouth with you whore
I gotta use the rest of you whore
Yeah, I gotta shut my mouth with you whore
I gotta use the rest of you

Now you see she walks the same
And now you see she talks the same
You never know what you will get
You never know what you'll forget
She walks over me
She walks over me
