Alone on a crowded train
Em
The city gives as it takes away

Years, years, years collect

And my faces change in the photographs

Dark is before the dawn arrives
Am C
This darkness is nothing but a lack of light

The silence, just the sound of night

Dream that you're asleep

But you can't wake and you can't speak
G
So slip away from the dance floor

Em
The easy way through the back door
G
Hearts, hearts, hearts will burn
Em
Just as autumn leaves always turn

This darkness is nothing but a lack of light
