

Honeywater - Old Eden

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

Why'd it go wrong
When it should have gone right
Why do we run
When there's no need to fight
I can't go on if I'm not alone
Or talking to you
You never knew
All the mountains I'd climb
When I'm with you
There's no passing the time
All of my dreams
Had been realized and taken away

[Refrão]

Oh why do I
Pray
Oh why do I, why do I
Stay
When the suns so far
Away
Oh well I hope this is my last day

[Verse 2]

Blame it on me
Things that I never did
One hundred and three keep me lying in bed
I'm so afraid
To hear people talk
These things they believe
Half truths and lies
Are drinking like wine
The other sides
Don't get any time
Listen to her
Don't miss him at all
Or listen to me

[Refrão]

Oh why do I
Breathe

Oh why do I, why do I
Leave
When you're all that I can See
Well it's time for honesty

[Ponte]

I want love
But I don't just want love, I want you
I see the beach house
Your sweet mouth
But the terrible news
Is that love
It's not how it seems on the screens
Yeah, real love has problems but it's what's Inbetween, that's the best
The way that she looks when she's dressed
For an all quiet Tuesday
Always a blue day with you
An' darlin' I died for the sunrays
That may not have ever been real

[Terceira Parte]

But still I miss you
And I wish you would
Come back to me
Like you used to
In last June
You came after me
And begged me to be the one you see
But I can't see you anymore
I blind
Or just finding
Out that it's been always been like this
The last kiss
Was only an accident
And I can't get past you
And I can't forget secret war
But I pray
And I stay

No matter the distance
I'll wait
Oh I'll wait
For Old Eden's resistance
Cause we grew together
But oh, Eve, I feel so
