

Hot Mulligan - Featuring Mark Hoppus

tom:

Am
I kinda miss you, back in high school
F
Twenty-five and I still think about your drawings that you made
Am G F Am G
I kinda miss you, but I can't talk to you
F
Cause in my mind, the only thing that I could do now is intrude
Am F C
I've got a ring, I think that she'd love you too
Am F C G
But I can't get past the fact I drag almost everyone down
( F C )
( F C G )
F Am G
I didn't think I'd say I wanna see you
F Am
I won't reach out to you after all this time
G

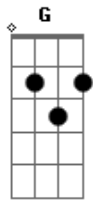

I'd imagine I don't fit into your view

F
Frozen drives from Rocky Horror outgrown
Am G
Lofty plans and failing class aside, you'd
F
Find me in the margins of a sketchbook
Am G C
Probably best to let the memory die out
Am F C
I've got a ring, I think that she'd love you too
Am F C G
But I can't get past the fact I drag almost everyone down
Am F C
Painting the walls that lined the hall after school
Am F C G
F
Smoke and tattoos, five years removed, hope you'd recognize me now
( F C )
F Am G
I kinda miss you
