

House Of Lords - Precious Metal

Tom: B

It takes a woman strong as steel to hold on to a man Who doesn't even want to feel, who isn't sure he can She's gonna need an iron will to stand her ground and fight
 She tolerated shit until she makes him see she's right
 I can't believe I got that kind of woman
 I don't deserve her but I do
 I'm blessed to say I got that kind of woman
 I got a miracle in you, oh
 Got a heart of precious metal, beneath the rarest rose hidden deep within her pedals Got a heart of precious metal, that took its chance and shows to invite inside a devil
 It takes a woman bad as gold to hold on to a man who wants to prove he isn't old by getting out of hand she's gonna need to catch his eye and slap his empty hand tell him if he tells a lie he will lay alone in bed

I can't believe I got that kind of woman

I don't deserve her but I do
 I'm blessed to say I got that kind of woman

I got a miracle in you, oh
 Got a heart of precious metal, beneath the rarest rose
 hidden deep within her pedals

Got a heart of precious metal, that took its chance and
 shows to invite inside a devil

(SOL0)

I can't believe I got that kind of woman

I don't deserve her but I do

I'm blessed to say I got that kind of woman

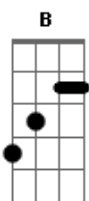

I got a miracle in you, a miracle.

Got a heart of precious metal, beneath the rarest rose hidden deep within her pedal

Got a heart of precious metal (oh it takes a woman) To be strong (precious metal) So precious (got a heart of precious metal) I know, I know she's so precious (precious metal)

Got a heart of precious metal
