

Houston Calls - High Rise

tom:
G
I'll save this for late night
Eb
A cup of coffee and a long walk through the park
Down from this rooftop
Bb
I see the pond and the great lawn through the dark
Eb
Just when should I tell you
D
That's always been the toughest part
I know how it ends but not how it starts
Eb
So this is how I choose to bring this around
That's all for now

I'm running out of time
Ab
Just tell me how to make this right
Bb
Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Eb D C
Recounting all the lines
Ab
I'd give to your expectant eyes
Bb
But I failed to see the signs
Eb D
It's not the first time
That my thoughts would get the best of me
Bb
So I'll keep to myself
And just keep on thinking wishfully
Eb D
I know that this won't help
I need to say this to your face
Bb
We both know this talk won't take place

So this is how I choose to bring this around
That's all for now
I'm running out of time
Just tell me how to make this right
Bb
Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Eb D C
Ab
I'd give to your expectant eyes
Bb
But I failed to see the signs
Eb
Don't bother to tell me
This time I can see in your eyes
That I'm caught in between perfect lies and an impossible dream

I'm running out of time
Just tell me how to make this right
Bb
Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Eb D C
Recounting all the lines
Ab
I'd give to your expectant eyes
Bb
But I failed to see the signs
Eb
So this is how I choose to bring this around
I'm running out of time
Just tell me how to make this right
Bb
Because I'm sick of planning ways to make you mine
Eb D C
Recounting all the lines
Ab
I'd give to your expectant eyes
Bb
But I failed to see the signs
