C Dm F F Em C
 So tired trying to see from behind the red in my eyes
C Dm Em F F Em C
 No better version of me I could pretend to be tonight
C Dm Em F F Em
 So deep in the swill with the most familiar of swine
Dm F C
 For reasons wretched and divine
C Dm F F Em C
 She blows out of nowhere roman candle of the wild
C Dm Em F F Em C
 Laughing her way through my feeble disguise
C Dm Em F F Em
 No other version of me I would rather be tonight
Dm F C
 And lord she found me just in time

Am Em F
 Cause with my mid-youth crisis all said and done
Bb B C
 I need to be youthfully felt 'cause god I never felt young

C Dm F
F Em C
 She's gonna save me call me 'baby' run her hands through my hair
C Dm Em F
F Em
 She'll know me crazy soothe me daily better yet she wouldn't care
Am G Em F
F Em C
 We'll steal a Lexus be detectives ride 'round picking up clues
C Dm Em F
 We'll name our children Jackie and Wilson raise 'em on rhythm and blues

C Dm F F
Em C
 Lord it'd be great to find a place we could escape sometime
C Dm Em F F Em C
 Me and my Isis growing black irises in the sunshine
C Dm Em F F Em
 Every version of me dead and buried in the yard outside
Dm F C

Sit back and watch the world go by

Am Em F
 Happy to lie back watch it burn and rust
Bb Bb Bm C
 We tried the world good God it wasn't for us

C Dm F
F Em C
 She's gonna save me call me 'baby' run her hands through my hair

C Dm F F Em C
 Cut clean from the dream that night let my mind reset
C Dm Em F F Em C
 Lookin' up from a cigarette and she's already left
C Dm Em F
F Em
 I start diggin' up the yard for what's left of me and our little vignette
Dm F C
 For whatever poor soul is coming next
