

IAMDDB - Childsplay

tom:
                                                                              Bb
                                                                I can not see what happened to me
        Gm
               Rh
Yeah, IAMDDB
                                                                I'm just tryna be me
Didn't you already know?
                                                                Pick myself up
                                                                Throw yourself down
Tickling through my mind
                                                                Never give up on us
I find something's that I cannot hide
                                                                                            Gm
                                                                'Cause we are so far from them, from them
In my inner self (in my inner self)
                                                                'Cause there's no replacing you, my friend
Calling for my own help
                                                                I cannot describe the way I feel
Tickling through my mind
                                                                When I remember that our love is real, yeah
I find feelings that I will not hide, yeah
                                                                Whenever I remember that, I love you still (I love you still)
Growth in me, confide in me
                                                                Keep it g at all times, that?s the deal, yeah
Come close to me, yeah
Never harming things (never harming things)
                                                                My energies
Stay in harmony (stay in harmony)
                                                                Is this my destiny?
Content in myself
                                                                I want to see, I need to feel
                                                                What I feel, what I know
'Cause I just keep on riding
Ride or die, keep on grinding
                                                                But I cannot breathe
Crying, crying, I'm gon' drow, ayy
                                                                This is incredibly intense for me
                                                                It's killing me
By myself, on my own, all alone
But I'm still in control
                                                                Oh, yes, it's killing me, yeah
I could go all night long, yeah
                                                                Oh, yes, it's killing me, yeah
(Keep it g of course)
                                                                            Bh
                                                                Always I'm killing me, no
                                                                It didn't have to be this way, uh
My energies
                                                                But I did it anyway, no
Is this my destiny?
I want to see, I need to feel
                                                                In my mind (in my mind)
What I feel, what I know
                                                                Tickling in my mind, yeah
But I cannot breathe
                                                                In my mind, yeah (in my mind)
        Bb
This is incredibly intense for me
                                                                Tickling through my mind all the time
It's killing me
                                                                In my mind all the time
Oh, yes, it's killing me
                                                                In my mind
                                                                Iamddb, keep it g of course, yeah
Sometimes I try to find the answers in my heart, yeah
                                                                Mermaid season

Somewhere between the scars, uh
