

Ingrid Monttana - Borderless

tom:
Shouldn't matter who I be
Shouldn't care much about me
Music's language, worldwide spree
Touches hearts, sets 'em free
Raise the Country flag up high
Love this life, can't deny
When music strikes, no need to pry
All that matters, don't you sigh
[Refrão]

Not here to prove
Not here to move
When I'm gone, don't you fear
My songs linger, loud and clear!
Shouldn't matter who I be
Shouldn't care much about me
Music's language, worldwide spree
Touches hearts, sets 'em free
Raise the Country flag up high
Love this life, can't deny
When music strikes, no need to pry
All that matters, don't you sigh
[Refrão]

Not here to prove

Acordes

Not here to move
When I'm gone, don't you fear
My songs linger, loud and clear!
[Solo]
Where I'm from don't count much
Who led me here ain't such a fuss
What matters, here I stand
From my heart, my message, hand in hand
[Refrão]
Not here to prove
Not here to move
When I'm gone, don't you fear
My songs linger, loud and clear!
What matters, here I stand
From my heart, my message, hand in hand
My songs linger, loud and clear!
What matters, here I stand
From my heart, my message, hand in hand
Not here to prove
Not here to move
When I'm gone, don't you fear
My songs linger, loud and clear!
What matters, here I stand
From my heart, my message, hand in hand
