

Iron & Wine - Sea And The Rhythm

Tom: G When salty my sweat and fingertips

Tabbed by:tim Sea and the Rhythm - Iron & Wine

Email: Our hands they seek the end of afternoon
My hands believe and move over you

Tuning:everything's down a half note or so yet another beautiful song from mr. beam

Tonight, we're the sea and the salty breeze
The milk from your breast is on my lips

And lovelier words from your mouth to me

Tonight, we're the sea and the rhythm there the waves and the wind and night is black tonight we're the scent of your long black hair spread out like your breath across my back Your hands they move like waves over me beneath the moon, tonight, we're the sea
