

Isly - Majesty

tom:

Intro: C D Em G

[Primeira Parte]

You make something here from nothing
Through the words that You speak
But from the dust where You're forming me
And by the breath that You breathe
There are no limitations
When it comes to Your ways
You're the God of creation
You're the Author of days

[Pré-Refrão]

And this I know
I see You for who You are
You're beautiful
Your glory outshines the stars
Your majesty
Is captivating me

[Refrão]

I just want to worship You
'Cause that's what I was made to do
You are my one desire
I'll sing of Your name forever
Unspeakable majesty
You are a mystery
You leave me in constant wonder
I'll sing of Your love forever

Instrumental

[Segunda Parte]

Who am I to describe You?
You're beyond what I know
You exceed understanding

You're the God of unknown
There's just one thing for certain
For as long as I live
I find purpose in worship
All my praise I will give

[Interlúdio]

The heavens will roar
The Earth will rejoice
Alleluia, Alleluia
The people will sing
Creation will cry
Alleluia, Alleluia

The heavens will roar
The Earth will rejoice
Alleluia, Alleluia
The people will sing
Creation will cry
Alleluia
Alleluia

The heavens will roar
The Earth will rejoice
Alleluia
Alleluia
The people will sing
Creation will cry
Alleluia

Woah
Hallelujah, hallelujah
Alleluia, Jesus
