Ua mau, ke ea o ka 'aina, i ka pono, o Hawai'i

A F

Ua mau, ke ea o ka 'aina, i ka pono, o Hawai'i

A

If just for a day our king and queen

F

Would visit all these islands and saw everything

G

How would they feel about the changes of our land

A

Could you just imagine if they were around

F

And saw highways on their sacred grounds

G

How would they feel about this modern city life

A

Tears would come from each others eyes

F

As they would stop to realize

G

That our people are in great great danger now

A

How, would they feel, could their smiles be content, then cry

(refrão)

Cry for the gods, cry for the people

F

Cry for the land that was taken away

G A

And then yet you'll find, Hawai'i

A

Could you just imagine if they came back

F

And saw traffic lights and railroad tracks

G A

How would they feel about this modern city life

A

Tears would come from each others eyes

F

As they would stop to realize

G

That our land is in great great danger now

A

All the fighting that the king had done

F

To conquer all these islands now these condominiums

G

How would he feel if he saw Hawai'i nei
