I want to sleep at night

But I can't because I'm thinking of you

You can't stop talking to him

I don't know what to do

Let's think about the situation

Do you think it's fine? Well, do you? (Well, do you?)

You think you're always right but you're wrong

And soon I'm gonna be gone

Runnin' your mouth, telling all these lies

Thinking I'm naive

You're in la-la-la-la-land

It started off with you always on your phone

Who have you been calling when I'm not home?

Asked you who it was, you said it was nothin

I blew it off, I blew it off

And a couple of more weeks went by

I saw the number pop up, I thought we were fine

(Woah, woah, woah)

Runnin' your mouth, telling all these lies

Thinking I'm naive

You're in la-la-la-la-land

Runnin' your mouth, telling all these lies

Thinking I'm naive

You're in la-la-la-la-land

Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah, woah...

Is it me or him?

Maybe we can start again

You're the one who broke my trust

And that was just too much

Is it me or him?

Maybe we can start again

You're the one who broke my trust

And that was just too much

Runnin' your mouth, telling all these lies

Thinking I'm naive

You're in la-la-la-la-land

Runnin' your mouth, telling all these lies

Thinking I'm naive

You're in la-la-la-la-land

Damn girl please
