

Jack Johnson - Any Wonder

tom: G

Afinação: Db Ab Db Gb Bb Eb

Intro: D Gbm G Em7

[Primeira Parte]

Is it any wonder?
Or can I believe in
Another morning
That I can?t keep
I sing all alone now
The birds are still sleeping
A passing storm off in the distance
Looks so peaceful

[Refrão]

Morning comes and go I can?t hold on to now

It?s so hard to let go Maybe I don?t know how

My shadow gets so long And I get lost somehow

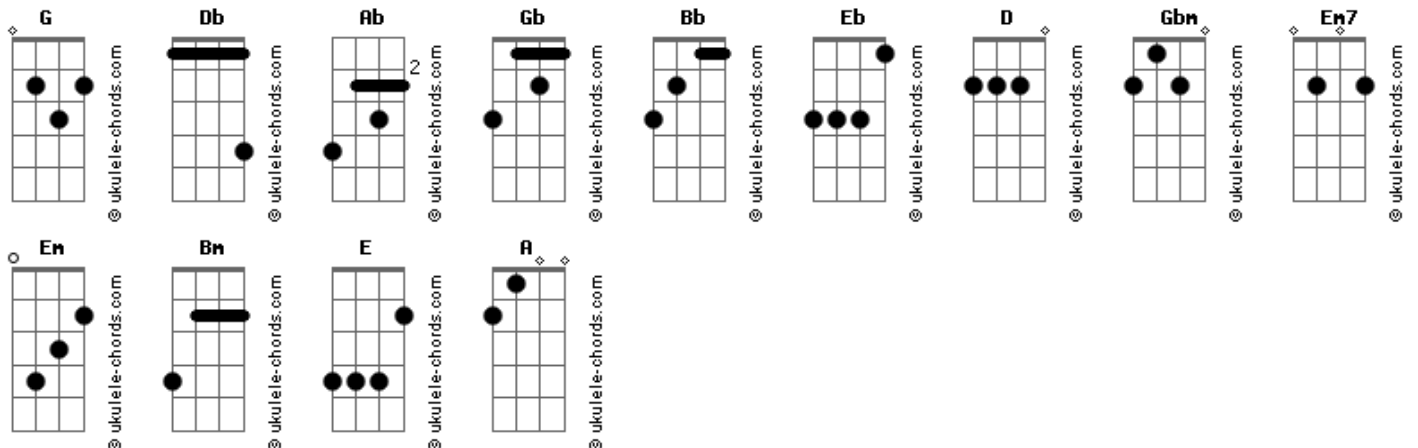

If you can hear me now

Morning comes and goes
I can?t hold on to now
It?s so hard to let go

Maybe I don?t know how
My shadow gets so long
And I get lost somehow

If you can hear me now

Acordes

[Segunda Parte]

And is it any wonder?
And is it really so hard to believe
That the light might come and go
And the love might never leave
One by one now
I hear the birds waking
Another morning song that I can?t take with me

[Refrão]

Morning comes and goes
I can?t hold on to now
It?s so hard to let go
And baby, I don?t know how
My shadow gets so long
And I get lost somehow
It?s so hard to let go
If you can hear me now

Shadows come and go
We can?t hold on to now
It?s so hard to let go
Baby, I don?t know how
Light will come and go
We get so lost somehow
You can always come back home
If you can hear me now
