

Jack Johnson - Losing Hope

Tom: C
Intro: Am C G [REPETE]

Am
I got a faulty parachute
C G
I got a stranger's friend
Am
An exciting change in
C G
My butchers blend
Am
A symbol on the ceiling
C G
With the flick of a switch
Am
Yeah my new found hero
C G
And the enemy's ditching
F

Am C G
Well somebodies something was left in a room
Am C G
And now that its gone well of course we assume
Am C G
Somebody else needed something so bad
Am C G
They took everything somebody had
F

C C Am
Losing hope is easy
D G
When your only friend is gone
D G
And every time you look around
D G C C
Well, it all, it all just seems to change
Am C G

Am
The mark was left
C G
Man it's never the same
Am
Next time that you shoot
C G
Make sure that you aim
Am C G
Open windows with passing cars
Am
A brand new night

C G F
With the same old stars
C C Am
Losing hope is easy
D G
When your only friend is gone
D G
And every time you look around
D G C C
Well, it all, it all just seems to change
Am C G

Am
Feed the fool
C G Am
A piece of the pie
C G Am
Make a fool of his system
C G Am
Make a fool of his mind
C G Am
Give him bottles of lies
C G Am
And maybe he'll find
C G Am
His place in heaven
C G Am C G
Cause he might just die
F

C C Am
Losing hope is easy
D G
When your only friend is gone
D G
And every time you look around
D G C C
Well, it all, it all just seems to change

C C Am
But hanging on is easy
D G
When you've got a friend to call
D G
When nothings making sense at all
D G C C
You're not the only one that's afraid of change
