

Jack Johnson - No Good With Faces

Tom: B

No good with faces and i'm bad with names
 Gave me directions but its all the same
 I'm lost
 I'm too tired to try
 Street lamps are broken black the way I came
 Who broke the moonlight watch it wax and wane
 I'm lost
 I'm too tired to try

(refrão)

Let's not get ahead of ourselves now
 There's no need for rain it's our own parade
 Let's not be afraid of our reflections
 It's not only you You're looking at now

(B Eb Abm E)

B Abm Gb E)

Road signs were stolen
 Left here holding this flame
 Who stole my patience
 Who stole my way
 I'm lost
 I'm too tired to try
 Let's not get ahead of ourselves now
 There's no need for rain
 It's our own parade
 Let's not be afraid of our reflections
 It's not only you
 You're looking at now

Let's not get ahead of ourselves now
 There's no need for rain
 It's our own parade
 Let's not be afraid of our reflections
 It's not only you
 You're looking at now
 Who you looking at now
 Who you looking at now

No good with faces
 And I'm bad with names
 Gave me directions
 But it's all the same
 I'm lost
 I'm too tired to try
