

Jack Johnson - Same Girl

Tom: G

Intro: dução 2x:

G
If you could read my mind Am
D7 You'd say baby you where right G
Am And I don't want to fight anymore D
G You're usually righter than I am Am
D And I'm not a very good fighter am I? Am
D No neither are you G
D So let's be through with this one C
Em Because some things never change D

G
I know you're still my same girl
Am D7 Who builds her own frames G
G For the pictures that she paintes Em
D7 Of the lights of Monterey C
C Coming across the bay Am
D Right back to my same girl, hmm hmmm hmmm hmm Am D7 G

Intro: dução 1x

G How can you be so calm Am
D When the truth is that sometimes G
Am We live in the eye of the storm D
G With everything going on around us Am
D I feel comfort in the sounds when you say G
Em It will be okay like the star guiding me G
Em To the light of the day D
C The doldrums could follow me D

G
But with my same girl
Am D Who builds her own frames G
G For the pictures that she paintes Em
D Of the lights of Monterey C
C Coming across the bay Am
D Right back to my same girl, hum hum hum hum G Am D G
