

Jack Johnson - The Upsetter

Tom: C

Breathing out or in

Verso 1:
Some will say
This place is wrong
These hands are fast
This face is long

Refrão:
Just Stop C upsetting yourself G
F Upsetting your G
C thoughts, Upsetting this world G
F That you're standing G
C on

Verso 2:
These plans are torn
These feet are cold
This shield is worn
This peace was stolen

Refrão 2:
C Stop G upsetting yourself
F Upsetting your G
C thoughts, Upsetting this world G
F That you're standing G
F on These problems they breathe G
C and their fire is real
F And The coins that they keep G
C You Can not steal
F Even when you're asleep G
C They'll be here still
F G Am

Verso 3:
Some will say
this place is gone
These roads are steep
And much too long
These plans are cheap
My feet are cold
Cut the knot
These coins are golden

Some will say
this place is gone
These roads are steep
And much too long
These plans are cheap
My feet are cold
Cut the knot
These coins are golden

Refrão 3:
C Stop G upsetting yourself
F Upsetting your G
C thoughts, Upsetting this world G
F That you're standing G
F on These problems they breathe G
C and their fire is real
F The coins that they keep G
C You Can not steal
F Even when you're asleep G
C They'll be here still
F G C
Breathing out or in

Acordes

