G In the morning when the world came awake Am D
G Before you knew me I knew your name Am D
G It was painted across the day as it breaks Am D
G An impression in your window frame

Am When you saw me out your window D
D Singing from the garden Am
Am Only the beginning D
D I'm only getting started Am
Am I don't mind the digging D
D Baby, I'll work harder Am
Am I've been washing dishes D
D Singing from the bottom

G But one day I'll be running this place Am D
G And one day I could take you away Am D
G But I want you to wonder what's my name Am D
G Because I need you to want me the same

Am When you saw me washing dishes D
D Singing from the bottom Am
Am Only the beginning D
D I'm only getting started Am
Am I don't mind the digging D
D Baby, I'll work harder Am
Am I've been in the ashes D
D Singing from the garden

G Where everything reaches for the sun Am D
G Still unsure of what we'll become Am D
G But I need you to reach out to me Am D
G See in me more than I could see

Because I'm afraid that

Am C One day is only two words we say D
G I don't want to let them get in the way C G
Am Of all the plans that we should be making right now D
D Right now

Am C Who took the time and where did they take it G
G I want to take it back D
D I don't want them to break it C G
Am All these plans that we should be making right now D (once)
D Right now
