

Jack Stauber - Oh Klahoma

```
Intro: Em Am G
Em Am G
Set the phasers to rot
What has got you distraught?
               Em
It's negative attention at best
But call it nothing
Maybe it's something, a little bit, a little bit
Maybe it's something, do a little bit, a little bit
                 Em
It's all about ascension, I guess
               G
Don't put me to rest
Em C7M
  Go on and hand me your clothes (there you go)
  Take a picture or two (two, bad feeling)
Em C7M
  I can see you (oh)
Tears falling down at the party
Saddest little baby in the room
Fears, tell me fears, don?t get me started
I get a little grey hair for every scare you share
```

Acordes

```
Those aren't meant to bend
No, those aren't meant to bend
I hear your eyes
And I see those cries
I hear those eyes
And I see those cries
               C7M
I can't be the only one who hears you
Tears falling down at the party
Saddest little baby in the room
Fears, tell me fears, don?t get me started
I get a little grey hair for every scare you share
Those aren't meant to bend
No, those aren't meant to bend
Tears falling down at the party
Saddest little baby in my eye
Fears, tell me fears, don?t get me started
I might die
