

Jack the Man - (U)kelele Song

tom:
 As I'm walking
 The dark road
 I know I'm not alone
 And my eyes are shining bright
 I can tell in spite the dark
 Because you're not very far
 If you were here in my arms
 I think you'd understand
 That my heart's beating fast because it wants so bad
 Just to see you again
 The sky is falling down
 To the ground
 I'm not wearing my crown
 But this voice inside tells me
 That I'll be happy finally
 Because It'll come back to me
 If you were here in my arms
 I think you'd understand
 That my heart's beating fast because it wants so bad
 Just to see you again

F C G Am F C G
 I can see you from the distance as you're staring at the sea
 Seeing things that in your life maybe, you want to be
 You are lost and daydreaming in your world imagining
 Hearing voices and you don't even know what's happening
 You don't know you are smiling, you don't know you are hiding
 From the Sun that it's shining so bright it is blinding
 The birds they sing for you and I Am singing too because
 We all want the same thing
 We want you
 If you were here in my arms
 I think you'd understand
 That my heart's beating fast because it wants so bad
 Just to see you again
 If you were here in my arms
 I think you'd understand
 That my heart's beating fast because it wants so bad
 Just to see you
