

Jacob Lee - Demons

Tom: G

My heart is weak^{Em}
 Tear it down piece by piece^C
 Leave me to think^{Em}
 Deep in my structure, I think I still love her^{Bm C D}
 But I need some sleep^{Em}
 You've taken my breath away^C
 Now I want to breathe^{D Em}
 'Cause I cannot see, what you can see^{Bm C}
 So easily^{D Em}

I thought my demons were almost defeated^{Em C}
 But you took their side and you pulled them to freedom^{D Em}
 They know my secrets and won't let me go, won't let me go^{Em C}
 I thought my demons were almost defeated^{D Em}
 But you took their side and you pulled them to freedom^{Bm C}
 I kept your secrets and I thought that you would do the same^D
 Leave me in peace^{Em}
 Caught in my memories^C
 Lost underneath^{D Bm C}

Deep in my structure, I feel a rupture^{Em}
 From where she should be^C
 You've taken my breath from me^{D Em}
 Now I want to breathe^{Bm C}
 'Cause I cannot see, what you can see^{D Em}
 So easily

I thought my demons were almost defeated^{Em C}
 But you took their side and you pulled them to freedom^{D Em}
 They know my secrets and won't let me go, won't let me go^{Em C}
 I thought my demons were almost defeated^{D Em}
 But you took their side and you pulled them to freedom^{Bm C}
 I kept your secrets and I thought that you would do the same^{Em C D}
 Take me away

I thought my demons were almost defeated^{Em C}
 But you took their side and you pulled them to freedom^{D Em}
 They know my secrets and won't let me go, won't let me go^{Em C}
 I thought my demons were almost defeated^{D Em}
 But you took their side and you pulled them to freedom^{Bm C}
 I kept your secrets and I thought that you would do the same
