You never see it coming

Then the next you know... unconditional love... unconditional love

She ain't looking for no diamonds

And digging for no gold

Just somebody to love... unconditional love

1st of January

Said you starting over

Your heart's been in remission

Making a new beginning (yeah)

And it's been six months since you got sober

Taking a new position

To make a better decision

Then you head to the corner store

And forget what you went for

Just as soon as he says hello... hello

REFRÃO

You never see it coming

Then the next you know... unconditional love... unconditional love

She ain't looking for no diamonds

And digging for no gold

Just somebody to love... unconditional love

OH, OH, OH

The fourteenth of February

Got a cold shoulder

From someone so unexpected

You left your heart unprotected (yeah)

Then you been to China Wall

Got it like a soldier

People would call your phone

You act like nobody's home

And I went to the corner store

And I forgot what I went for

Just as soon as you said hello... helllloo

REFRÃO (2x):

You never see it coming

Then the next you know... unconditional love... unconditional love

She ain't looking for no diamonds

And digging for no gold
