

Jake Bugg - Indigo Blue

tom: C

Hovering down, pitting at the question howl
 Maybe I'm weird, would explain why I'm so scared
 Area grey scared of being wrong, I stay
 And as I fear, everything's still unclear

From the top of this mountain
 Beyond the horizon
 Indigo blue
 Puddling all over my eyes

My body is bruised, the colour of indigo blue
 My mind confused, why I'm no one that you choose?
 I wish the noise would cover up my conscience voice

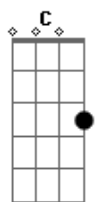

Every bad dream I'm told that it's not my choice

From the top of this mountain
 Beyond the horizon
 Indigo blue
 Puddling all over my eyes

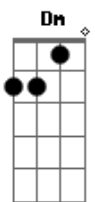

And I'll always make pain-making mistakes
 But I don't care if you're mine
 And if my heart breaks, keep our pictures on display
 'Cause I'll love you 'til the end of time

From the top of this mountain
 Beyond the horizon
 Indigo blue
 Puddling all over my eyes
