

Jake Bugg - Slumville Sunrise

Tom: C

^E The wind is beating on my window
^A I haven't slept all night
^E That drum just keeps on banging
^A They must be buzzing in the mind,
^A bees in the hive, tell me when the morning arrives

^E This place is just not for me
^A I say it all the time.
^E My friends they just ignore me.
^A Tell me nevermind, waiting on your line for the Slumville Sunrise.

CHORUS

^{Em} Slumville Sunrise.
^C Nobody cares or looks twice
^G Shout away in the morning across this place where I was born
^B in
^{Em} Every roof, every flower illuminated by the morning

^E My face upon the concrete, the dirt is in my mouth
^A I clench my fist and feet. I try to cry out loud
^A Make a sound, somethin is keepin me down

^E This place is just not for me
^A I'll say it a thousand times

^E My friends they just ignore me
^A Tell me nevermind, waiting on your line for the Slumville Sunrise

CHORUS

^{Em} Slumville Sunrise.
^C Nobody cares or looks twice
^G Shout away in the morning across this place where I was born
^B in
^{Em} Every roof, every flower illuminated by the morning

GUITAR SOLO

^E This place is just not for me
^A I say it all the time.
^E My friends they just ignore me.
^A Tell me nevermind, waiting on your line for the Slumville Sunrise.

CHORUS

^{Em} Slumville Sunrise.
^C Nobody cares or looks twice
^G Shout away in the morning across this place where I was born
^B in
^{Em} Every roof, every flower illuminated by the morning
^C Every roof, every flower illuminated by the morning

E A - E A - E A - E A

Acordes

