```
A                    E
You walked into the room
                            D
And now my heart has been stolen
A               E           D
You took me back in time to when I was unbroken
         Gbm
Now you're all I want
          E                  D
And I knew it from the very first moment
         Gbm                        E
'Cause a light came on when I heard that song
                    D
And I want you to sing it again

A                    E
I swear that every word you sing
          D
You wrote them for me
A                    E
Like it was a private show
                        D
But I know you never saw me
              Gbm                 E
When the lights come on and I'm on my own
                    D
Will you be there to sing it again?

A                        E                 D
Could I be the one you talk about in all your stories?
A
Can I be him?
A                    E                     D
I heard there was somone, but I know he don't deserve you
A               E          D
If you were mine I'd never let anyone hurt you
             Gbm                 E
I wanna dry those tears, kiss those lips
                  D
It's all that I've been thinking about
             Gbm                        E
'Cause a light came on when I heard that song
                    D
And I want you to sing it again

A                    E
I swear that every word you sing
```

You wrote them for me
A                    E
Like it was a private show

But I know you never saw me
              Gbm                 E
When the lights come on and I'm on my own
                    D
Will you be there to sing it again?
A                        E                 D
Could I be the one you talk about in all your stories?

           Gbm Dbm
Can I be the one?
           Gbm Dbm
Can I be the one?
           Gbm Dbm
Can I be the one?
         D        E
Oh, can I, can I be him?
A                    E
Won't you sing it again
                    D
Oh, when you sing it again
                D
Can I be him?
A                    E
Won't you sing it again
                    D
                D
Can I be him?

A                    E
I swear that every word you sing
          D
You wrote them for me
A                    E
Like it was a private show
                        D
But I know you never saw me
              Gbm                 E
When the lights come on and I'm on my own
                    D
Will you be there, will you be there?
A                        E                 D
Can I be the one you talk about in all your stories?
A            E
Can I be him?
          D
Can I be him?
A            E
Can I be him?
          D
Can I be him?
