

James Arthur - Emily

tom:

Intro: D

[Primeira Parte]

D
Dear Emily

I really wanna write this carefully
A
Now that we're a family

It's only you, your mum, and me
Bm
Dear Emily

We're gonna live forever happily
G
I'm gonna ask your mum to marry me

But there's some things you need to know
D
Your papa was a rolling stone

Playing in a sold-out show, yeah
Taking all the highs and the lows

But living with an empty soul, yeah
Bm
And if you ever read the things they wrote

I hope that you can let them go
G
I was living in a different world

Before I had my little girl, yeah

[Refrão]

D
Emily

When I hear you cry, I'll sing you A back to sleep
Bm

Do you know you inspire all my melodi?s?

'Cause you make me a b?tter man
G
Than I'll ever be, ever be, ever be

Because of you, Emily

[Segunda Parte]

D
Dear Emily

I saw you way before you came to me
A
'Cause I picked out your name and wrote it on paper

Acordes

I needed life and life came
Bm
And gave me Emily (It's all Emily)

Will I be good enough for you?
G
The truth is I'm afraid of everyone
And anything that could hurt you

[Refrão]

D
Oh, Emily

If you ever feel lonely, just sit A next to me
Bm
Since we brought you home with us, you're everything

'Cause you make me a better man
G
Than I'll ever be, ever be, ever be

Because of you, Emily, yeah

[Ponte]

D A
Oh, you're all I'll ever need, baby
Bm
I've been alive

G
You're all I'll ever need, oh no, no-no
D D
When I'm looking at your tiny feet
Bm
I feel your heartbeat here inside of me
G
I feel a love that I just can't believe

[Refrão]

D
Oh, Emily

When I hear you cry, I'll sing you A back to sleep
Bm
Oh, do you know you inspire all my melodies?

'Cause you make me a better man
G
Than I'll ever be, ever be, ever be

Because of you, Emily

[Final]

D
Oh, Emily

If you ever feel lonely, just sit A next to me
Bm
Oh, since we brought you home with us
Bm
You're everything, you're everything

'Cause you make me a better man
G
Than I'll ever be, ever be, ever be

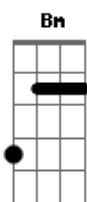

Because of you, Emily
