

James Arthur - I'll Reach You

```
I should have never put an ending to this fairy-tale
I've wrote a million times
But I've had no replies
I'll press my nose against the window hoping you'll arrive
I don't know how to tell him soon that I won't be alive.
It'sbeen a long time forever's just too long
And I'll take you home tonight
And I'm going to run and run and run till I reach you.
She's bleeding. Won't someone help us'
Don't you die on me now
Oh she's bleeding. Won't someone help us'
Don't you die on me now
Don't you die on me now
Oh she's bleeding. Won't someone help us'
Don't you die on me now
```
