

James Arthur - Superman

Tom: C

Empty promises and broken dreams
 I know you've had your share
 And so have I it seems
 Put your hand in mine
 And I'll hold it tight
 You see I'll never let you fall
 I will warm your coldest nights
 I have no reason to feel the way I do
 But the man above keeps saying
 That she's the one for you
 I know we're worlds apart
 But what else can I do
 You see today our planets collided
 And now the rest is up to you
 Here I am, I will always be here I'm your superman
 Here I am, I will always be here I'm your superman
 Here I am, I will always be here I'm your superman

Take a trip with me fly into my head
 I will show you lifes beauty and I will promise no regrets
 Put your trust in me and I'll do the same with you
 I think together we can storm the waters and build bridges new Seems to be we lived another life
 I was once your husband and you my beautiful wife
 All I know love is what's meant to be will be
 I have never felt so sure that you're the one for me
 Here I am, I will always be here I'm your superman
 Here I am, I will always be here I'm your superman
 I will always do my best by you
 Share your dreams and you mine too
 I will make your world a better place
 I'll be your foundation to build into space
 Here I am, I will always be here I'm your superman
 Here, here I am, I will always be here I'm your superman, superman.
 I will always be here.
 I will always be here, I'm your superman.
