

James Arthur - You Deserve Better

```
Tom:
Intro: E A D G B E
I'm just not sure my heart is working
                                        Е
And yours is beating double time
Deep down you know I ain't even worth it
It's not enough, babe, all I do is make you cry
                    D
                                     Е
Like ooh-woah, ooh-woah
                             Е
I know I do this every time \,
                 D E Gbm
Like ooh-woah, I know
                                                         Ε
That I just got to say what's on my mind
You deserve better, better, better than me
Might be what you want, but I'm not what you need
You're better, better than you even realize \begin{tabular}{c} \begi
You deserve better, better, better than me
  Gbm
Might be what you want, but I want you to see
You're better off without me in your life
And I hope you'll find somebody else
That'll love you like nobody else
And I hope he gives you something real, oh, I love you still
But you deserve better, better, better, better
Give up on me, 'cause, babe, I'm hopeless
D

Gbm
The more it hurts, the more it's right
You know I loved, I just never showed it
E
It'll be too late when you're with some other guy
                                 Е
Like ooh-woah, ooh-woah
