

James Arthur - Young

```
Tom: B
                                                               I'd like to dance
                                             G )
 (com acordes na forma de Uh!
Capostraste na 4º casa
                                                               But I'm just looking for a brief romance
Intro: Em7 D G C
                                                               What's wrong with that?
tabrefrão
                                                               I'm young
Fm7
                                                               Forgive me.
 Forgive us for what we have done
                                                               I live fast, die a legend.
We are young, we're young, we're young
                                                               Bridge:
I said forgive me for what we have done
                                                               Em7 D G C
                                                               0h.....
We are young, we're young, we're young refrão
                                                               tabrefrão
                                                               Fm7
Break:
                                                                Forgive me for what we have done
Em7 D G C
Ah ah ah yeah yeah
                                                               We are young, we're young, we're young
Verse:
                                                               I said forgive me for what we have done
                                                               We are young, we're young, we're young
 I've made a lot of mistakes in my past,
But I refuse to live there.
                                                               (Refrão)
                                                               Verse:
I saw a lot of hearts break in the past,
                                                               And If I die would you cry, would you walk on by
but I refuse to go there.
Agh!
                                                               Missing Lyrics
It hurts too much,
                                                               (Refrão)
I'm looking for a crutch.
I'm looking for just any girl,
                                                               I said forgive me for what we have done
Just for a touch
                                                               We are young, we're young, we're young
                                                               I said forgive me for where we come from
I let my agnst out...
I let myself go...
And when I let myself down,
                                                               We are young, we're young, we're young
         Em7
                                                               refrão
I swag it out
```

Ending: Em7 D G Cadd9

Acordes

Uh, uh, baby girl

