

James Blunt - Cold

Tom: Eb
                                                               And I?m just trying to get a little closer (forma dos acordes no tom de C )
                                                                   Pull me in, cause I?m here and all I need is little warmth
Capostraste na 3ª casa
                                                               [Refrão]
           [Primeira Parte]
          C
                                                               Without your arms around me
It?s been lonely, trying get your attention
                                                               Without you on my skin
From a thousand miles away
                                                               Without you on my body, I?m sorry, I?m sorry
And you know me, always overthinking the worst possibilities
                                                                            G
                                                               I don?t mean to be desperate, or pretend that I?m not torn
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                               But I don?t want to let go of the things that keep me warm
                                                               Without you I?m just cold
Yeah, we both know,
                       in between you and me, there?s an ocean
                                                               Without you I?m just cold
Castaway in a sea and it?s frozen
                                                               [Ponte]
    I?m exposed, can?t you see, all I need is a little warmth
                                                               And I need a little fire and you?re my gasoline.
[Refrão]
                                                               Light me up, I?m burning, with all these things I feel.
Without your arms around me
                                                               I?ll always hold this flame for you
Without you on my skin
                                                               But it?s naked on the breeze.
Without you on my body, I?m sorry, I?m sorry
                                                               So let me in, don?t lock me out or cast me out to sea.
I don?t mean to be desperate, or pretend that I?m not torn
                                                               [Refrão]
But I don?t want to let go of the things that keep me warm
Without you I?m just cold
                                                               Without your arms around me
[Segunda Parte]
                                                               Without you on my skin
                                                               Without you on my body, I?m sorry, I?m sorry
I built a little boat with a sail from the memories
                                                               I don?t mean to be desperate, or pretend that I?m not torn
I?ve been collecting
                                                               But I don?t want to let go of the things that keep me warm
                          Am
And I?ll hold out for the wind to blow me
                                                               Without you I?m just cold
Take me home the whole way, in your direction
                                                               Without you I?m just cold
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                               Without you I?m just cold
Yeah, we both know,
                     in between you and me there?s an ocean Without you I?m just cold
