

James Blunt - Heartbeat

Tom: G

(com acordes na forma de C)

Capostrate na 7ª casa

Intro: Am

Am

Let it slide

All the choices I made

E7
Let it burn

As it rows down my face

C
Let it fall

Dm
Just to be the one again

Am
But if I want

E7
I won't be loved by you at all

Am
Let it slip

Every promise I break

E7
Let it burn

All that blows that we trade

Let it fall

Dm
'Cause this place has been condemned

Am
And we both know

E7
That we can't be here anymore

(Am G)

Yeah, I know I pulled a pin on your heart

But I lost that all, then tell you when you let down your guard

G
Should've run, run a hundred miles

Never look back track, 'cause now we can backtrack

And yeah, I know, I'm just sayin' nothing can change

Am
No one to blame, it's on the tip of my tongue

Here it comes, this is crazy, you should know that
I would go back in a heartbeat
Just to make your heart beat

(Am)

Am

Let it fail

It's too late to be saved

E7
Let it roll

They're all across this grey

Let it blaze

Dm
There's a darkness in the flame

Am
And it's lost

E7
And we can't bear it anymore

Am
Let it slide

I can't start it again

E7
Let it burn

While it's held in my hand

Let it fall

Dm
'Cause this journey is at its end

Am
It's only luck

E7
That I was loved by you at all

(Am G)

Yeah, I know I pulled a pin on your heart

But I lost that all, then tell you when you let down your guard

G
Should've run, run a hundred miles

Never look back track, 'cause now we can backtrack
