James Morrison - It's Too Late

Tom: D

   (riff)

Gbm                                          B7
Stayed in bed all mornin' just to pass the time
Gbm                                                  B7
There's somethin' wrong here, there can by no denyin'
Gbm                                E
One of us is changin', or maybe we just stopped tryin'.

             G                               D
And it's too late baby, now it's too late
                    G                          D
Though we really did try to make it
 G                                Gbm                  Bm
Something inside has died and I can't hide
                              E
And I just can't fake it, oh
Gbm       B7          Gbm      B7
No          no no no.

Gbm                                      B7
It used to be so easy livin' here with you
Gbm                                              B7
You were light and breezy and I knew just what to do
D
Now you look so unhappy and I feel like a fool.

             G                               D
And it's too late baby, now it's too late
                          G                          D
Though we really did try to make it
G                                Gbm                  Bm
Something inside has died and I can't hide
                                 E             A
And I just can't fake it, oh no no.

( Gbm       B7     Gbm      B7   Gbm       B7     Gbm      B7
)  (2x)

Gbm                                          B7
There'll be good times again for me and you
Gbm
B7
But we just can't stay together, dont'cha feel it too?
l I'm glad for what we had, and how I once loved you.

             G                               D
But it's too late baby, now it's too late
                          G                          D
Though we really did try to make it
G                                Gbm                  Bm
Something inside has died and I can't hide
And I just can't fake it
                    A                 D
Oh, no no no no no.

( G  D    G    Gbm   Bm  E )
( A    D )  (4x)    A
