

James Taylor - A Junkies Lament

Tom: E

(com acordes na forma de D)
Capostrate na 2ª casa
(capo 2ª casa)

Em A7sus4 D D
Ricky's been kick-ing the gong
Gbm B7 E E
lickety split didn't take too long
G C Gbm B7
A junkie's sick a monkey's strong
E Dbm A
That's what's wrong

Em A7sus4 D D
Well I guess he's been messing around downtown
Gbm B7 E E
so sad to see the man losing ground
G C Gbm B7
winding down behind closed doors
E Dbm A
on all fours

C G
Mama don't you call him my name; D D A
he can't hear you anymore

C G
Even if he seems the same to you
D Bm E E
that's a stranger to your door
C G A
Ask him what's he come here for

Oh my God a monkey can move a man
Send him to hell and home again
With an empty hand in the afternoon shooting for the moon

It's halfway sick and it's halfway stoned
He'd sure like to kick but he's too far gone
so they wind him down with the methadone
He's all on his own

But baby don't you throw your love away
I hate to seem unkind
It's only that I understand the man that the monkey can leave behind
I used to think he was a friend of mine
