James Taylor - A Junkies Lament

Tom: E G Even if he seems the same to you D) (com acordes na forma de Bm FF D Capostraste na 2ª casa that's a stranger to your door (capo 2ª casa) G Α Ask him what's he come here for A7sus4 DD Fm Oh my God a monkey can move a man Ricky's been kick-ing the gong Gbm B7 Send him to hell and home again E E lickety split didn't take too long With an empty hand in the afternoon C Gbm B7 shooting for the moon G A junkie's sick a monkey's strong Dbm A It's halfway sick and it's halfway stoned F _ That's what's wrong He'd sure like to kick but he's too far gone so they wind him down with the methadone DD He's all on his own Fm A7sus4 Well I guess he's been messing around downtown B7 E But baby don't you throw your love away Gbm E. so sad to see the man losing ground I hate to seem unkind G C Gbm B7 It's only that I understand the man winding down behind closed doors that the monkey can leave behind E Dbm A I used to think he was a friend of mine on all fours Em A7sus4 D D Gbm B7 E E G C Gbm B7 E Dbm A (slower) G La la la ... C Mama don't you call him my name; Gbm Dbm Gbm Dbm Gbm Gbm Dbm Gbm Dbm A C D E Gbm B7sus4 Gbm D D A La la la ... he can't hear you anymore

ukulele-chords.com

Bn minifere-chords.com