

James Taylor - Hello Old Friend

Tom: E

Released 1974.

Paris' rooftops were lovely to see.
Switzerland's vertical landscape
crossed my mind's eye just now.
Canada's shoreline has been calling out to me,
but it's been too long a time since last I crossed that vast Nantucket sound.

Hello old friend, welcome me home again.
Well, I've been away but that's all over now.
Say I can stay for October, now, stay a while and play.

Little dog David, I must look like a fool.
I should've remembered you'd be forgetting my smell, well.
Give me a week or two to recapture my cool,
I've got stories to tell about how I snatched the devil's catch and out ran the hounds of hell.

Hello old friend, welcome me home again.

Isn't it nice to be home again, over here it's clear.
