

James Taylor - Rain Day Man

Tom: F

Intro: C Gm

C F C7 F
What good is that happy lie?
C F C7 F C
All you wanted from the start was to cry, girl.
Gm C7 F7 Dm
It looks like another fall.
Gm C7 F7 Dm
Your good friends they don't seem to help at all.
Gm C7 F7 A
You're feeling kind of cold and small,
Gm C7 F7
just look up your rainy day man.
Gm C7 F7 Dm
It does you no good to pretend, a child.
Gm C7 F7 Dm
You've made a hole much too big to mend.
Gm C7 F7 A
And it looks like you lose again, my friend,
Gm C7 F7
Call on your rainy day man.
Dm C Bb7 Am
Now rainy day man, he don't like sunshine,
Dm C
he don't chase rainbows,
Bb7 Am
he don't need good times, no.
Dm C7 Bb7 Am Bb7 Am
Grey days rolling, then you'll see him, empty feeling,
Gm Gm

now you need him.

Gm C7 F7 Dm
All those noble thoughts, they just don't belong.
Gm C7 F7 Dm
You can't hide the truth with a happy song.
Gm C7 F7 A
And since you knew where you stood all along,
Gm C7 F7
just look up your rainy day man.
Dm C Bb7 Am
Now simple pleasures they all evade you,
Dm C Bb7 Am
store-bought treasures, none can save you.
Dm C Bb7 Am
Look for signs to ease the pain,
Bb7 A Gm Gm
ask again, go on and pray for rain.
Gm C7 F7 Dm
It looks like another fall.
Gm C7 F7 Dm
Your good friends they don't seem to help at all.
Gm C7 F7 A
when you're feeling kind of cold and small,
Gm C7 F7
just look up your rainy day man,
A Gm C7 F7
all I need to do is look up your rainy day man.
C F C7 F
