

Janelle Monáe - Make The Bus

Tom: G

The way you are now
You're never gonna make the bus, even though
Everybody's so impressed
You've got "Do androids dream of electric sheep?" under your pillow
Oh oh oh
I saw you spit on London just like you were Peter Pan
The way you are now
You're never gonna make it in my kitchen, still
Everybody's so excited
Last I was here I was convinced I was your favorite warrior
Oh oh oh

Refrão:

I've got a terrible fix-ation
Can't get it off my mind
Don't want to really get to know it better
Want to keep it in the realm of fantasy
You wanted me just for a holiday
Or was it to pad your resume?
What do you give me but unwanted breakthroughs

Strange how certain details subvert everything

I've got a terrible fixation
Can't get it off my mind
Don't really want to know it better
Want to keep it in the realm of fantasy
O-M-G W-T-T
Aww girl we been through hell about it! Then I see our friends and Everybody's so excited
I'm standing over you eating juicy fruits till it gets in your eye
Oh oh oh

Don't want to really get to know it better
Want to keep it in the realm of fantasy
