

Jason Mraz - 3 Things

Tom: G

There are three things I do when my life falls apart
 Number one I cry my eyes out and I dry up my heart
 Not until I do this will my new life start
 So thats the first thing that I do when my life falls apart

 (G C D G)

Oh the second thing I do is I close both of my eyes
 And sing my thank yous to each and every moment of my life
 I go where I know the love is and let it feel my up inside
 Gathering new strength from sorrow, I'm glad to be alive
 (G C D G)

Things are looking up
 I know above the clouds the sun is shining
 Things are looking up
 I know above the dark the sun is rising on
 Just three little things

 Oh oh oh oh

Oh oh oh oh (three little things)

Yeah the third thing that I do now when my world caves in
 Is I pause I take a breath and bow and I let that chapter end
 I design my future bright not by where my life has been
 And I try, try, try, try, try again
 Yes I try, try, try, try, try again

Things are looking up
 I know beyond the dark the sun is rising
 Things are looking up
 I know above the clouds the sun is shining on
 Things are looking up
 Love is still the answer I am relying on (Three little things)
