

Jason Mraz - Halfway Home

Tom: A

(acordes na forma do tom G)

Capotraste na 2ª casa

Capo on 2nd fret

Lying on the opposite side of the street

I'm halfway home and I'm still out on my own
I'm halfway there and I don't care, I don't mind
Because it ain't my time not to stay or say Well I can't say, but you can bet that i will play my heart out I'll won't lay.

I used to think that I could just sit and wait for the times
But I know I gotta meet them somewhere out there halfway

Well I used to walk along the opposite side of the road and made others get out of my way I used to think that I could sit and wait for the times but I know I should meet them halfway

I'm halfway home and I'm on my own
I'm halfway there and I don't care, I don't mind
I plan to leave here after supper time that's when traffic is light, all I need is a sign and I'll be alright. I'll be fine

Well I used to think that i could just sleep and then I would dream
And everything it would just come to me
Until I woke one day without anything to eat

I'm halfway home I tried running with the flow I'm halfway there. Ain't it funny how everybody seems to care
I planned to get there around supper time their serving up bread and wine
All I needed was a sign and I guess I'llbe alright.
I'll be fine.
I'll be fine.
I'll be alright.
I'll be alright.

It seems to be a running theme about being fine and alright but I don't mind.
Because I'll be fine and alright
I'll be fine
I'll be fine
