There's a picture on my kitchen wall
Looks like Dbm
Jesus and his friends involved
There's a Gb Bm
party getting started in the yard
There's a Bm Dm A

You hit your head and then forgot your name Gb Bm
And then you woke up at the bottom by the drain Bm Dm A
And now your altitude and memory's a shame E E Gbm

A Bm7 Dbm7 Bm7
What about taking this empty cup and filling it up
With a little bit more of some innocence A
I haven't had enough, it's probably because when you're young Dbm7 Bm7
It's okay to be easily ignored Db7 D Dm7
(D E F-walk-up notes on the A string)
I like to believe it was all about A love for a child
And when the house was left in shambles Dbm
Who was there to handle all the broken bits of glass Gb Bm
Was it mom who put my dad out on his ass or the other way Bm Dm A Dbm Gbm around

Well I'm far too old to care about that now Bm E E
A Bm7 Dbm7 Bm7
What about taking this empty cup and filling it up
With a little bit more of innocence A Bm7
I haven't had enough, it's probably because when you're young Dbm7 Bm7 A
It's okay to be easily ignored Db7 D Dm7
(D E F-walk-up notes on the A string)
I'd like to believe it was all about A

G Bm A Dbm
It's kinda nice to work the floor since the divorce G Bm A
I've been enjoying both my Christmases and my birthday cakes G Bm A Dbm
And taking drugs and making love at far too young an age G and they never check to see my grades E E A
What a fool I'd be to start complaining now
A Bm7 Dbm7 Bm7
What about taking this empty cup and filling it up A Bm7
With a little bit more of innocence Dbm7 Bm7 A
I haven't had enough, it's probably because when you're young Db7 D Dm7
