Ooooh... Ooooooh... Ooooooh... Ooooooh...

My heart is a mirror reflecting your face
And when you come nearer, I'll meet you halfway
I'll kiss you when you kiss me, we're one and the same
'Cause my heart is a mirror with you in its frame

I read your words backwards and as hard as I try
When the room steams up, I turn in and hide
Been dropped more than once, I don't claim to be new
I only notice the cracks when they break across you

Ooooh... Ooooooh... Ooooooh... Ooooooh...

I'm taking my chances, I'm taking my time
I know that it's right when we're locking our eyes
I'll tell you the truth, yeah, it's all I can do
'Cause my heart is a mirror, it's just empty glass without you

Ooooh... Can you see yourself in what I do?

I Can see me in you
Can you see yourself in what I do?

I can see me... I can see myself in you...

I can see me in you...
