

Jason Mraz - Silent Love Song

tom: F

Dm

Bbm

Feeling less than my ordinary self i guess i must be getting older

Dm

Bbm

The fog already heavy on my mind evokes a time that's turning colder

Gm

At breakfast the effect is picturesque

Bbm

The window opens up and lets in

The Santa Anna winds again

F

She's a silent love song

Bb

Never stays long

G

Does not belong to any person

C

Though she's opening the curtains in my head

Bb

She's a kind of quiet

G

And always hides it in a flame

C

Dm

She's certainly a hurricane

Bbm

Strange how such a gust of gentile breeze can ravage hearts across California

Dm

You start to grow accustomed to her turn around

Bbm

She's gone of course she warned ya

Gm

She sometimes passes in a single night

Bbm

And other times she lasts the weekend

F

She's a silent love song

Bb

Never stays long

G

Does not belong to any person

C

Though she's opening the curtains in my head

Bb

She's a kind of quiet

G

And always hides it in a flame

C

Dm

She's certainly a hurricane

Dm

And tangles up inside and under covers

C

Angled in her way seen as a struggle

Gm

Bbm

But two lovers we're always in the end

F

And the Santa Anna winds again

Bb

G

I've been stealing hearts

C

F

Where i don't belong (She's a silent love song)

Bb

G

I'm breathing hard (Does not belong to any person)

C

F

When you come on strong (Like a hurricane)

Bb

G

The more i love (You never have to say you're sorry)

C

F

The less i know (Anna don't cry)

Bb

G

C

Still in harm (Don't say goodbye)

F

Bb

G

C

Anna don't go

(F Bb G C F)
