

Jason Mraz - The Remedy

```
Tom: Bb
                                                                nothin in the end (chours 2x)
(acordes na forma do tom A )
                                                                                                Ghm
                                                                                                            Dbm Capostraste na 1º casa
                                                                Α
                                                                        D (capo 1º casa)
                                                                E
                                                                                  I wont worry My life
                                                                                                             away hey oh oh
(intro 2x) Gbm D A E Dbm D A E
                                                                (then play the intro part 1x)
                                              F
                    R
Well i saw fireworks form the free way, and behide closed eyes A
I can't make em go away
                                                                Well i heard two men talkin on the radio in a crossfire kinda reality show
                                                                                    R Gbm
Cause you were born on the 4th of july, freedom ring, now something on the surface it stings uncovering the ways to plan the next big attack counting the В
                                                                ways to stabe a brother in the b
I say something on the surface it kinda make me nervous who Gbm
says that you deserve
this and what kinda god would serve this right back after this the unavoidble kiss where the minty fresh death breath is sure to outlast this
We will cure this dirty old disease well if you got the poison Gbm
                                                                                                               Ε
i got the remedy
                                                                Castastrophy dance with me cause if you got the poison i got the remedy
(pre-chours)
                                               F
Gbm
                                                                (pré-chorus)
The remedy is the experience
                                       this is a dangerous liaison (chorus)
                                                                                                               Ē
                                              F Gbm
                                                                Ghm
i say the comedy is that its secious, this is a strang enough
                                                                When i fall in love i take my time there's no need to new play on words
                                                                worry when making up my mind
Gbm
                                                                Gbm
                                                                you can turn off the sun but i'm still gone shine
I say the tragedy is how you're gonna spend the rest of the and night with your light on then i tell you why (pré-chorus)
so shine the light on all your friends, well it all amount to (chorus)
```

Acordes

