

Jeff Satur - Hide (English Version)

tom:

Intro: Em A D B7

Baby, I can sing you some of my songs
Say a couple words like they're my poems
Just so you can know how much I long

For your arms
In my arms

Going all the places that you've been to Doing all the things that you're into
I just really wanna try to win you
If you want to

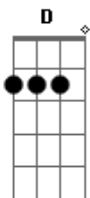

Yeah, I'm trying but I'm getting more dry
You don't even look me back in my eyes
All my love I'm giving, yeah, you don't buy
So I hide

But when I'm with you, yeah, I'm feeling so right
You're the only one who gets me so high
Know I'm never ever leaving your side
Now I won't hide

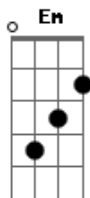

Cause baby it's, baby it's you
Babe, it's you
All these stars impossible to count
I'll be here till all time runs out

Baby, it's you
Babe, it's you
I would die a thousand times

Just so you can feel alright

Baby, baby

I'm crawling, no, I can't walk

I'm falling just for you

All these words that I wrote you

There's nothing I won't do

My heartbeat breaks

Each breath I take is you

Yeah, I'm trying but I'm getting more dry

You don't even look me back in my eyes

All my love I'm giving, yeah, you don't buy

So I hide

But when I'm with you, yeah, I'm feeling so right

You're the only one who gets me so high

Know I'm never ever leaving your side

Now I won't hide

Cause baby it's, baby it's you

Babe, it's you

All these stars impossible to count

I'll be here till all time runs out

Baby, it's you

Baby, it's you

I would die a thousand times

Just so you can feel alright
