

Jeff Satur - Why Don't You Stay (English Version)

tom:

Intro: C G D Em

[Primeira Parte]

All this time I sink
Drowning like a stone
Tryna close my eyes
Shut my ears on this throne
Losing my way home
Then you came along
Everywhere we are

Felt like where I belong

[Pré-Refrão]

Lost in your eyes
There was no place I could hide
Take me inside
And let me live in your mind
No pain tonight
This place is reserved for only you and I

[Refrão]

Cause I wanna stay on your side
Even if the world come crashing down tonight
We'll be fine
Hold me close and we'll just leave it all behind
Why don't you stay

[Segunda Parte]

These bruises and wounds
Fractures on my bones
Tryna fix it all
But I failed all alone
But just to be with you
Just you lying close

I can see the scars
Fade away on their own

[Pré-Refrão]

Lost in your eyes
There was no place I could hide
Take me inside
And let me live in your mind
No pain tonight
This place is reserved for only you and I

[Refrão]

Cause I wanna stay on your side
Even if the world come crashing down tonight
We'll be fine
Hold me close and we'll just leave it all behind
Why don't you stay
Oh no
Right here
With me

(Stay stay)

Let me stay right here
Oh woah right here
So baby

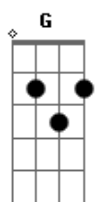

(I just wanna stay here)
(Let's just stay right here)
(I will be okay)

(We can live forever in each others eyes)
(I just wanna stay here)

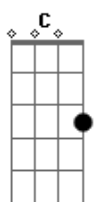

So let me stay right here
(Let's just stay right here)
(I will be okay)

We can live forever why don't we just stay, stay
